

November

What if it's Dementia? Signs, Early Detection, and Seeking Resources

Learn to recognize the early signs and symptoms of dementia and understand why early detection can make a meaningful difference for individuals and families. This educational session will provide practical guidance on what to do when you have concerns about memory or cognitive changes, along with an overview of local resources and support services available to those living with dementia and their care partners.

DATE: 11 11 26

TIME: 11:30 AM

LOCATION: Portage Commons

ADDRESS: 133 N. Williams St., South Bend, IN 46601

Space is limited, reserve your spot today by calling (574) 284-7189 to register.

Register for lunch by 12 PM: 11 6 26

Patty Piechocki

Manager of Programming and Continuing Education

Patty is the Manager of Programming and Continuing Education for the Institute for Excellence in Memory Care. She is a Certified Therapeutic Recreational Specialist (CTRS) who has worked in the memory support field for over 30 years and is a community and professional educator and consultant

Program may be provided in part by funding through Indiana Family and Social Services Administration through the Older American's Act.